A Tribute For 'The Legacy Of James Tod

We are pleased to introduce this tribute from Dr Shashi Gupta, IISc, Mumbai, who has generously sponsored the digitisation of our manuscript RAS Tod 126, comprising two parts on Indian history and legends.

Dr Shashi Gupta

Lead paragraph: Colonel James Tod was an officer of the British East India Company and an Oriental scholar. He lived in Rajasthan as Company 'Resident' or official representative to the Rajput courts from 1818-1822. He studied Hindu, Sikh, Buddhist, Jain, Muslim, and Jains, and studied the local annals. Tod meticulously collected royal genealogies, inscriptions, coins, artefacts, manuscripts and sketches of monuments. He combined his official role and his amateur interests to create a series of works about the history and geography of Rajasthan, which Tod referred to as 'Rajasthani'. Tod published numerous works, most notably Annals and Antiquities of Rajasthan, based on materials collected during his travels.

As a Historian, Tod's work is part of my journey to know the history of the Indian subcontinent. That's why this is a great honour to my research journey, to help in the digitisation of Tod's work. My primary motive is to save his work for future generations of researchers.

I especially want to thank my parents (A. K. Gupta and Smita Gupta) and both sons (Guraj Narayan and Satya Narayan) who inspire and motivate me to do this service.

I highly appreciate the Royal Asiatic Society, London and its team for their dedication towards historical research.

Dr Shashi Gupta

Digitisation of RAS Tod 126 manuscript

RAS Tod 126 contains Reshahdar-i-Jahangir-i-Jahangir - a collection of 1000 illustrations of administrative offices in the kingdoms of India; and Wakia-wakia (Tales of King Vikramaditya by Mira Gargol). An inscription records that it was copied for James Tod 'Son of the King, Gwalior 1822'. The text therefore appears to have been copied from the library of Maharaja Shree Jai Singh - Jai Singh's original library. The digitisation of this manuscript will be completed soon and we look forward to making it available via the Society's Digital Library.

The Society is inviting sponsorship to digitise more manuscripts from its collections as part of its bicentenary celebrations in 2023. You can find out more here.

Patrons may also wish to note that the Society is publishing a new edition of James Tod's Annals and Antiquities of Rajasthan. The prospectus for the volume is available here. Patrons and Members of the Society are able to subscribe to the anniversary re-issue in advance of its publication for a discounted price. To qualify for the reduced price, full payment must be received by 18 December 2022. Subscribers will have their names published if they so wish in the List of Donors that will appear in the Companion volume. Further information on how to subscribe can be found here.

Dear Dr. Shuchi Gupta,

I hope you are well.

Thank you for your sterling contribution to the topic of "The significance of gold (jewellery, dentistry, etc) in India and the Diaspora". Your engaging presentation greatly enriched our understanding and provided valuable insights for our audience. It also left a lasting impression on participants. Thank you once again for sharing your time, knowledge and expertise freely. Please see the unedited version of the recording here: <https://www.youtube.com/@dmahab/streams>

Sincerely,

Executive Director Dr Kumar Mahabir,
